Temperance

A steadfast anticipation of God's good plans for the future

That centers and sustains joyful participation and protects from despair.

A persistent seeking and trust of God

That fuels a desire to participate in God's work in the world.

A resolute willingness to embrace discomfort

That facilitates active engagement with God's work in the world and its challenges.

Inward commitment to and outward expression of righteousness

That works against oppression to affirm and restore the dignity of all God's creation.

Deep compassion and self-giving

That promotes the good of all of God's creatures.

Intellectually humble, open-minded discernment

That balances virtues and exercises them appropriately in the service of God and creation.

Practice of self-control and moderation

That protects from excess and derailment from participation in God's work.
